

HACIENDA SAN JUAN DE TACO

Located in the town of Buenavista del Norte, this is a Canarian-style manor house that dates back to 1622. It has the characteristic features of this type of buildings which is very similar to those in Latin America, so it can easily double for a South American hacienda.

The property has different buildings measuring a total of 1,726 sq. m. including large rooms of wooden floors and very high ceilings and a long corridor looking onto the courtyard. It rises on a 13,400 sq. m. plot, which includes a large area of flat uncultivated land.

- Rooms available for make-up, hairdressing, costumes, etc.
- Unlimited parking space
